Overview of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

The screenshot shows the ICO website's main navigation bar with links for Home, For the public, For organisations, Report a concern, Action we've taken, and About the ICO. Below the navigation is a search bar. The main content area features a large image of a globe with network connections. A news article is displayed: "European guidance published – profiling and breach reporting" by Jo Pedder, Head of Policy and Engagement. Below the article, a "Look ahead" section shows a calendar for the months of June and July, with the 28th highlighted in yellow. Text next to the calendar says "Guidance: what to expect and when" and "View the ICO's priorities in the coming months". Another section titled "Data Protection Bill" is partially visible. On the right side, there are three buttons: "View our blogs", "View our events and webinars", and "View our videos".

The screenshot shows a yellow header with the text "Preparing for the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)" and a callout box containing "12 steps to take now". Below the header is a large image of the Earth. The main content area features a section titled "Data protection reform" with a globe graphic, and another section titled "Preparing for data protection reform" with a list of four items: "Overview of the GDPR", "GDPR: 12 steps to take now (updated)", "GDPR messages for the boardroom", and "Privacy notices code of practice".
